By submitting a design image, I understand and agree that my design image may be edited, copied, exhibited, published, sold or distributed and waive the right to inspect or approve the finished product wherein my design image appears. Additionally, I waive any right to royalties or other compensation arising or related to the use of my design image. I also understand and agree that the design image may be used in diverse formats and settings within an unrestricted geographic area and may be made available to interested parties in person, or electronically via the world wide web, mobile application, or future technology advances. I hereby grant SALT the perpetual, exclusive, transferable, fully paid up worldwide right to use, reproduce, transmit, display, perform, prepare derivative works from, sell, distribute, and authorize the redistribution of the design image for Schoharie Area Long Term, Inc. (SALT) Community Resilience projects and purposes. This permission authorizes use of the design image on the SALT website, on third-party websites, and in/on all existing and future forms of media, as well as on T-shirts, mugs, and other commemorative items. This permission also authorizes SALT to use my name, and my photograph or likeness as part of SALT’s projects and purposes. I hereby release and discharge SALT from any and all liability arising out of any injury of any kind which I may sustain from participation in SALT’s projects.
